How can we help you?

We review the whole financial structure of our clients' farming and business enterprises regularly to understand their needs, aims and future aspirations. In addition to the standard accountancy and tax compliance services we provide to our clients, we routinely perform specialist services such as:

Business structure advice

Succession planning and the passing of assets to the next generation

Capital tax planning

Inheritance Tax advice and Will reviews

Review of Partnership Agreements

Preparation of cash flow forecasts, profit or loss forecasts and business plans

Assessment of diversification plans and associated tax consequences

Contract Farming Agreement reviews

Contract farming accounts

Specialist capital allowance claims

Research and development claims

Probate services and estate accounts

If you are searching for a personal and client focused approach then please get in touch with us for a free initial consultation on-farm or at one of our offices.

Our team

We value the importance of time spent away from the office, not only in our interactions with clients on-farm but also in our efforts to connect with our colleagues. The team now comprises over 50 dedicated individuals, many of whom bring invaluable agricultural backgrounds to the table.

Our commitment to our team's training and development is demonstrated by our collaborative approach to work with and understand all types of farming business. By collaborating with such businesses, we offer our team members the invaluable opportunity to immerse themselves in the day-to-day operations of agriculture as well as their diversified enterprises. We firmly believe that this hands-on experience is essential in equipping our professionals to deliver experienced agricultural-focused accounting and tax advice.

About us

At Larking Gowen we have one of the largest teams of agriculture accounting specialists in the UK. Our clients range from small family farms to large rural businesses who operate collectively more than 400,000 acres throughout East Anglia and beyond.

We are a major regional independent partnership and one of the UK's top 50 accountancy firms. Founded in 1888, today Larking Gowen has a team of over 400 people across six offices throughout East Anglia.

As your accountant and business advisor, we'll provide a friendly, confidential one-to-one service, backed up by specialist agricultural knowledge and experience. We'll listen to you, understand your personal and business aspirations and build a personal relationship of trust.

Larking Gowen

Autumn Farming Conference

In 2022, Larking Gowen held its inaugural Autumn Farming Conference in Suffolk. The first of its kind in the county, the conference brought together agriculture industry leaders and those from across the agriculture sector, for a practical day of exchange and learning.

Created for farmers, growers, landowners and all those involved in agriculture

Bringing the farming community together to share and learn from each other

You can always expect a diverse range of speakers from across the industry including farm data specialists, farm diversification case studies and how the industry is affected politically and environmentally

All profits are given to a farming charity
