

Case study: MP (Eastern) Ltd

Larking Gowen assisted MP (Eastern) Ltd with the sale of the business to private equity investors, Symphony Alpha Limited.

The deal

MP (Eastern) Limited provides anodising and electroplating services to a variety of industries including oil & gas, aerospace & defence, automotive, packaging machinery and general engineering industries throughout the UK and internationally.

Larking Gowen assisted the shareholders in the sale of the business to private equity investors, Symphony Alpha Limited.

Our role

Larking Gowen Corporate Transactions provided assistance throughout the whole sale process, including:

- Preparing the sales documentation
- Marketing the business for sale, identifying and directly approaching potential buyers
- Reviewing offers and negotiating with interested parties
- Choosing the preferred bidder and agreeing heads of terms
- Tax advice and structuring the deal

Client:

MP (Eastern) Ltd

Industry sector:

Anodising and electroplating

Transaction:

Business sale

Key highlight:

The buyer was sourced from Larking Gowen's acquisition watching brief service, which has over 100 active business buyers looking for businesses across a range of sectors.

Comments

Richard Guise, Director and shareholder of MP (Eastern) Limited, said:

"Jack helped make what can be a very stressful process as straightforward as possible.

"He and the team at Larking Gowen have been both personable and professional throughout the transaction and always on hand to talk through any questions or queries."

Jack Minns, Larking Gowen Partner, said:

"Richard and Mike deserve huge credit for developing such a successful and well respected business within its industry.

"We wish Mike a long and happy retirement and Richard all the best in continuing to build the business with the new owners, Symphony Alpha."