About our teams

Our expertise

Our partners have in-depth knowledge covering a full range of specialist areas including personal tax, VAT, corporate finance, business strategy and business recovery. We have teams of experts with years of experience who can help you with all accountancy issues.

Knowing your business

Our approach is to provide you with a single point of contact who listens to your needs and can help you with every detail of your business, tax and accountancy affairs. Many of our clients have been with us for years, and sometimes over several generations.

Meeting our objectives

Once we've got to know you, we won't just sit still. We will always be looking for opportunities to help you protect your wealth and work towards your short, medium and long-term objectives. We'll help you avoid the pitfalls and face any challenges you may meet.

Digital solutions

Choosing the right accounting software for your business can save you time and help streamline the way you manage your accounts.

We can advise you on what accounting software best suits your needs, whether it's a desktop or online accounting package. We'll help you choose a service that's right for you, and give you full support once it's in place.

At Larking Gowen, we are more than purely chartered accountants.

Commitment is central to our values. We're committed to delivering the best possible services for our clients, committed to their goals and to the success of their businesses.

We'll look after all your tax and finance issues, and we'll be trusted business advisors with a friendly one-to-one service you can count on."
